Today we have a Samaritan leper! While lepers were rejected by "normal" people in society, Samaritans would have been despised even by other lepers. Who are those we don't even acknowledge as human beings? Who are the ones who are living in the fringe of society or the ones who have been pushed sometimes by us to live with less dignity? As Christians, we are called to serve one another. This is a basic commandment. Most of us take things for granted because most of us have become complacent. Maybe we need to learn from the leper how to be grateful, how to have a grateful heart. The leper came back "glorifying God in a loud voice, and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him" and Naaman declared that his cure showed that "there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel." These foreigners challenge us to move beyond ourselves and think as Jesus thinks, they challenge us to put on the mind of Christ. Who is the stranger among us? Who is the one we call "foreigner?" As we gather around this Table of Plenty, may we recognize that our Lord was also a stranger in a strange land. May we continue building up the City of God here and today. May the bread we break and cup we share, remind us that we need to be grateful for what we have and give praise and thanks to a God who calls us to recognize and welcome the stranger among us.
