WEEKLY REFLECTION

Peace be With You

This Sunday's Gospel reminds us of Jesus' gentle invitation: "Come to me, all you who labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

This year many of the pilgrims who will come to St. Anne's this year will carry burdens that cannot be seen—worries about their families, illness, grief, uncertainty, or prayers they have held in their hearts for years. They come seeking hope, comfort, healing, and peace in the presence of God.

Our feast theme, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God," therefore calls each of us to prepare with the right mindset. We are not simply hosts of an annual celebration; we are disciples entrusted with welcoming Christ in every person who enters our parish. A warm smile, a listening ear, a patient heart, a helping hand, and words of kindness can become instruments of God's peace for someone who has travelled a long way in faith.

As parishioners of St. Anne, let us ask ourselves: Will those who come here encounter only a well-organised feast, or will they encounter Christ through us? May our preparations go beyond decorations, logistics, and programmes.

Let us prepare hearts that are humble, welcoming, compassionate, and ready to serve.

May St. Anne intercede for us, so that throughout this feast we may truly become peacemakers—bringing God's peace to every pilgrim, every visitor, and one another. In doing so, may all who come to our parish return home not only with memories of the celebration, but with hearts renewed by the peace and love of Christ.

Announcements

PARISH GOTONG ROYONG

Sunday, 12 July 10.30am – 1.00 pm

FEAST COMMITTEE MEETING –

Wednesday, 08 July at 7.45 pm @ Meeting Room

SPECIAL HOLY HOUR IN PREPARATION FOR THE PATRONAL FEAST

A Special Holy Hour will be held for the entire parish community on 10 July at 7.00pm. All Ministry Leaders and their Core Team members are required to attend this Holy Hour. As leaders in the parish, we are called not only to prepare the physical aspects of the Feast but, more importantly, to prepare our hearts spiritually. Our service should flow from prayer and our relationship with Christ. We kindly ask all ministry leaders to ensure that their core team members are informed and present. Let us come together in prayer, seeking God's guidance, strength, and blessings as we prepare to welcome the many pilgrims and parishioners who will celebrate our Patronal Feast with us.

*"Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labour in vain."
– Psalm 127:1*

Thank you for your cooperation and commitment. Let us entrust all our preparations to God through the intercession of Saint Anne.
