WEEKLY REFLECTION

Could we be excluded from salvation
for one such petty reason as improper dressing

Listening to the Gospel today we may have this question in our head. "Could we be excluded from salvation for one such petty reason as improper dressing?"

Perhaps, we can find a clue to this symbolism when we heed the words of St Paul that we too must, "clothe ourselves with heartfelt mercy, with kindness, humility, meekness and patience. Bear with one another and forgive whatever grievances you have against one another." (Colossians 3:12-13)

The final saying of our Lord in the passage: "For many are called, but few are chosen." Saint Jerome says that, "The chosen are those who accept the call and do not reject the invitation, like the first guests, or who do not accept it fully, like the man who comes to the dinner but does not dress in the proper manner."

Our God came to earth and became one of us in the person of Jesus Christ to prove His love for us and to extend a personal invitation to each and every one of His sons and daughters, to come and join Him at the banquet table that He has prepared for us in His heavenly Kingdom. It is an open invitation.

Salvation is not something we earn. It is an invitation that we are free to either accept or reject. Merely claiming that we have received the invitation is no guarantee that one is able to partake in the wedding feast of the kingdom. That invitation must be accepted, not just on our own terms but on God's terms.

So, it is crucial to remember that salvation won by Jesus for the sake of all is not applied automatically; it requires that to attain Eternal Life each individual must, to the extent of his or her understanding, accept and live in the grace won by Christ. We must take care to "clothe ourselves with heartfelt mercy, with kindness, humility, meekness and patience.

FEAST DAY PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

O Blessed Virgin Mary,
Queen of the Most Holy Rosary,
on this feast day we gather with joyful hearts to give thanks for your maternal care and love.

As we meditate on the mysteries
of the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, guide us closer to His divine heart.

Teach us to pray with faith,
to contemplate with humility,
and to walk each day in complete
trust in God's holy will.

Obtain for us, dear Mother,
peace in our hearts, harmony
in our families, and salvation
for all souls.

Wrap us in your mantle of protection, and lead us safely
to the joy of eternal life.

Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us.

Amen.

ALL SOULS DAY MONDAY 2 NOVEMBER

All Souls' Day

November 2

*J*esus, dear Savior,
on this day we prayerfully remember
all our loved ones who have died.
Please give them comfort and hope
and may they be at peace,
knowing that they will
rest in God's arms eternally.
Thank You for our memories of them
and for the good times we shared.
We ask You, please,
through their intercession,
to deepen our faith,
strengthen our hope
and increase our love
that we, too, may someday
stand before You,
ready to enter Your Holy Kingdom.
Amen.

REMEMBERING THE HOLY SOULS

In the month of November, we celebrate All Souls Day. A day we remember those who have gone before us, our friends, our family, or acquaintances.

We remember the Church Triumphant, the Church Suffering, and the Church Militant. Those who are in heaven, the souls in purgatory, and us who are still on earth. It is a feast day for all souls, for every soul ever created by God. No matter the time or length of one's life. Every person made in the image and likeness of God, a soul never to be repeated in all of human history. A soul set apart for a specific mission, for a particular time in history to bring about the glory of God. As we journey as the Church Militant still here on earth we are connected as the Body of Christ.

Both the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy call us to show mercy for the departed souls: to Bury the Dead and Pray for the Living and the Dead. As we begin the month of November, the Month of the Holy Souls we can incorporate small acts of prayer, sacrifice and kindness into our domestic church and daily living. This doesn't have to be a grand gesture or something that takes hours out of our day, because we all know the chaos of family life.

During the month of November, we visit the cemetery and pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.

Here are a few more ideas. How does your family pray for the holy souls?

- Have Masses said for deceased family or friends.
- Light a candle at church.
- Drive through the cemetery and say a few prayers for those buried there.
- Volunteer to help clean up the cemetery, rake leaves, pick up fallen over vases or place flowers by gravesites.
- Add a prayer for the holy souls at the end of your meal prayer.
- Pray an extra Hail Mary during the day.
- Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.
- Pray the Holy Souls Novena.
- Light a candle during your family prayer time.

May the souls of the faithful departed
through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
